

How to Use Matlab Campus Wide License (Existing User)

1. Open the below Matlab Portal in your browser.

<https://www.mathworks.com/academia/tah-portal/tata-institute-of-fundamental-research-31122786.html>

2. Click on Sign in to get started.
3. Sign up with TIFR email id.
4. A verification mail will be sent to your email id. Click the link in the email to verify the same.
5. Fill the details to create your profile, accept the license and click on Create button.
6. A message will appear “Your account has been created and license has been linked with your account”.
7. Run the Matlab version installed on your desktop. Click on Help Button, Under Licensing select “Activate Software”.
8. Select the option “Activate automatically using the Internet (recommended)”.
9. Select the option “Log in to my Mathworks Account” and enter your Email Address and Password”.
10. Raise an SRS (www.tifr.res.in/SRS) ticket to get the Activation key.
11. Follow the on-screen steps to complete the activation.
12. Double click the Matlab version icon on your desktop to run the software.